

ELECTIONS 2023

Candidate's Request for the Register of Electors

In accordance with Part VI of the Representation of the People Regulations 2001, each candidate is entitled to one free copy of the full Register of Electors for the area of the election in which they are standing.

As a candidate or election agent you must not

- (a) supply a copy of the full register to any person;
- (b) disclose information contained within the register; or
- (c) make use of any such information otherwise than for electoral purposes.

It is an offence (leading to a fine not exceeding level 5 of the standard scale – currently £5,000) to supply or use the register for other purposes.
